

Alec Turner – BSc
alec@ssl.co.uk

Current Position

Senior Software Engineer, System Simulation Ltd, London. since 1990

Alec is responsible for the maintenance and development of our core software (especially on the Microsoft Windows front) and was also the lead developer for our original MUSIMS product (including a support role for V&A Museum, British Museum and others).

Main Experience

- support and development of C/C++ software
- support and development of Microsoft, MFC based, Visual C++ applications
- development of Index+/WIX applications
- MUSIMS consultancy work (i.e. demos, training, presentations, etc)
- maintenance of in-house technical documentation

Major Projects

- GKS: Developer
- ROCKnROM: Developer
- BooksIndex+: Lead developer
- WIX: Lead developer
- Index+ ALIBS: Lead developer
- MUSIMS: Lead developer
- ImageIndex+: Lead developer

Previous Experience

- 1980 – 1984      Engineering apprentice/technician, British Airways. Alec spent 4 years training as an aircraft engineer (based at Heathrow airport) graduating as an Aircraft Technician grade 1.

Education

- 1984 – 1990      BSc Computer Science, City University